Re: Conservation Chemical Company of Illinois, Inc.
Superfund Site, Gary, Indiana

Dear Ms. Beasley:

As I have discussed with Cynthia Kawakami, I represent K.A. Steel Chemicals, Inc. (the "Company") in connection with the general notice letter related to the above-captioned site issued by U.S. EPA on September 28, 1994 and received by the Company on October 6, 1994. An initial 10-day extension of the time to respond was granted to several respondents, including my client. As I further indicated to Ms. Kawakami, and also in my voice mail message to you today, I have been attempting to obtain the Company's files related to prior proceedings concerning this site. These files are in the possession of the Company's prior legal counsel. To date, I have not yet received the Company's files. With only incomplete information at this juncture, I am unable to properly respond to the general notice letter on behalf of the Company. As I mentioned in my voice mail message to you, I expect to receive the Company's files by the end of this week, and therefore requested an additional extension until next Friday, November 4, 1994 by which to respond. Although my message stated that I will assume the additional extension is acceptable if I did not hear from you, I am sending you this transmittal to confirm the extension. Please feel free to call me if you have any questions concerning this extension. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

MAUCK, BELLANDE & CHEELY

Mark Robert Sargis
